

Randall Vaughn

Kentucky Arts Council Board

Lexington, Ky.

Randall Vaughn, AIA, NOMA, NCARB, is VP Professional Services, Gray Architects and Engineers, with Gray Construction located in Lexington, Ky. With over 25 years of experience as a project architect, he has worked with the planning, design and construction of industrial, manufacturing, distribution, multi-family housing, education and commercial developments.

As member of American Institute of Architects, he is currently serving as at-large member to the AIA National Strategic Council and has served as Past President for AIA Kentucky. He currently serves on Baptist Health Lexington Administrative Board, UK COD School of Architecture advisory committee and investment committee for Pritchard Committee for academic excellence.

From 2007 to 2017 Randall served on Kentucky Arts Council Board and is a former commission member of Kentucky Historic Properties Commission, former board member of Living Arts and Science Center, Operalex, and Governor's school for the Arts Advisory committee.

He served two terms on the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government Planning Commission and Board of Architectural Review. Randall has served on the Bluegrass Trust for Historic Preservation. He also served on Fayette County Schools local planning committee.

Randall, a 1991 alum of Leadership Kentucky, is an active member in Alpha Beta Lambda Graduate Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc., and has served as chair, vice-chair, and board member of the Chapter's Education Foundation.

Randall enjoys art, golfing, fishing, genealogy, visual arts, music, sculpture, woodworking, and writing.